No Secret Alliance With England.

Columbus, Ohio, September 12.

In a letter to Chairman Dick of the Republican State Executive Committee, Secretary of State Hay makes this emphatic statement regarding the alleged secret alliance between England and the United States:

There is no alliance with England, nor with any power under Heaven except those known and published to the world. No treaty has been suggested on the other side; none is in contemplation. It has never entered into the mind of the President nor any of the Government to forsake, under any inducement, the wise precept and example of the fathers, which forbade entangling alliances with European powers.

Virginian Mistaken for a Sea Serpent.

Three lads who mistook William Barnes, a wealthy resident of Port Norfolk, for a sea serpent and shot him through the chin while he was swimming at midnight on Friday, were arraigned before a magistrate on Saturday and their cases continued one week. Parsons, the boy who fired the shot, declares that he and his companions were frightened by the antics of Barnes, who is an expert swimmer, and when headed for their boat feet foremost, spouting water, they thought him a ferocious monster of the deep and fired. Barnes will recover.—Alexander Gazette.
